Mine Super Account-based pension investment option returns are after investment management fees, but before the $180 pa direct administration fee<sup>2</sup>, and aren't taxed.

This information is general in nature and shouldn't be considered advice. These returns are not necessarily the same returns a member earned on their account. The reason for this include the date the member started their account and the timing of contributions, benefit payments, deductions and investment switches. Past performance is not necessarily an indication of future performance. The risks for each investment option may vary. Check the Product Disclosure Statement before making any investment decision. All returns are rounded to two decimal places.

<sup>1</sup> These investment options were renamed High Growth (previously Aggressive) and Conservative Balanced (previously Balanced) on 25 March 2021. Investment returns outlined in the table above cover periods when these investment options were also operating under their previous names.

From 25 March 2021, if you are invested in these investment options as part of the Lifecycle Investment Strategy, the percentage mix of your investment in these investment options automatically change each year on your birthday, starting from age 51. For more information, read the Product Disclosure Statement at mine.com.au/super-pds.

Note: applicable to existing members in the Lifecycle Investment Strategy, it is closed to new members.

<sup>2</sup> From 25 March 2021, the direct administration fee of $180 pa was replaced with an asset-based fee of 0.16% pa of the account balance.
