APPLICATION FOR VOLUNTARY COVER

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This form is for members who hold insurance in the DEFAULT DIVISION. Generally, you're in the Default Division if you joined the Fund on or after 20 May 2024, are eligible for insurance and haven't opted in to the MINING DIVISION.

If you hold insurance in the MINING DIVISION you're covered under different insurance arrangements.

If you currently have insurance, you can find the Division you're part of by logging in to your online account at teamsuper.com/login or by calling us on 13 64 63.

Before you start...

Fill this form out in BLOCK letters using a black or blue pen. Write ${m X}$ to mark boxes.

Use this form if you want to:

- apply for Death and Terminal Illness (DTI) and Total and Permanent Disablement Insurance (TPD) Cover.
- apply for Income Protection insurance.

Please note, if you're aged 65 or older you're not eligible for Income Protection insurance and if you are aged 70 or older you're not eligible for Death and Terminal Illness (DTI) or Death and Terminal Illness (DTI) and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) Cover.

The duty to take reasonable care

If you apply for life insurance, you will be treated as if you are applying for cover under an individual consumer insurance contract. The Insurer will conduct a process called underwriting. It's how it decides whether it can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

As part of underwriting, the Insurer will ask questions it needs to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance.

The information you provide in response to those questions will be vital to the Insurer's decision. As such, when applying for life insurance you have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer. A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed.

This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Whether the Insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether reasonable care was taken not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances
- what the Insurer would have done if the duty had been met for example, whether it would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms
- · whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before any of these remedies are exercised, the Insurer will explain the reasons for its decision, how to respond and provide further information, and what you can do if you disagree.

1. YOUR DUTY TO TAKE REASONABLE CARE

When you apply for insurance with TAL (the Insurer), you are treated as if you are applying for cover under an individual consumer insurance contract. A person who applies for cover under a consumer insurance contract has a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) there are a number of different remedies that may be available to the Insurer. They are intended to put the Insurer in the position it would have been in if the duty had been met. For example, the Insurer may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed);
- · vary the amount of the cover; or
- · vary the terms of the cover.

Whether the Insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether reasonable care was taken not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances.
- what the Insurer would have done if the duty had been met for example, whether it would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before any of these remedies are exercised, the Insurer will explain the reasons for its decision, how to respond and provide further information, and what you can do if you disagree.

Guidance for answering the questions in this form

You are responsible for the information provided to the Insurer. When answering questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Please note that there may be circumstances where the Insurer later investigates whether the information given to it was true. For example, it may do this when a claim is made.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, the Insurer may ask you whether the information that has been given as part of your application for insurance remains accurate or whether there has been a change to any of your circumstances.

If you need help

It's important that you understand your obligations and the questions that are being asked. Please contact us for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of obtaining insurance or answering any questions.

Please also let us know if you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason - we're here to help and can provide additional support.

Before deciding to replace any existing cover, you should compare and consider the policy terms and conditions to work out if the insurance cover is right for you. If you decide to replace existing cover you hold with another superannuation fund or insurer, please do not cancel your existing cover until we have told you that your application has been accepted, and on what terms. This is because there are some risks associated with replacing your existing cover, such as:

- If you have experienced any new health issues you may not be covered for these under your new replacement cover. But these health issues may be covered under your existing cover, depending on when they arose and your policy terms.
- You may be subject to new or restarted waiting periods before you can make a claim on the new replacement cover
- If you make a misrepresentation in your application for the replacement cover, the new insurer may avoid your cover (treat it as if it never existed) or vary the cover provided (including reducing the cover amount).

TAL and its related entities are committed to ensuring that your information is handled responsibly in accordance with the Privacy laws, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles. The way in which TAL collects, uses, secures and discloses your information is set out in the TAL Privacy Policy available at http://www.tal.com.au/Privacy-Policy or free of charge on request to TAL by telephoning 1800 666 136.

Collection and use of personal information

We collect personal information, including, but not limited to, your name, age, gender, contact details, health information, salary, and employment information so that we may assess and administer our products and services to you. In certain circumstances, such as applications for life insurance products and processing claims, we may be required to collect personal information of a sensitive nature such as lifestyle and medical history information. If you do not supply the information that is required, we may not be able to provide our products and services to you or pay a claim.

We may take steps to verify the information that you provide, for example we may obtain independent medical reports regarding information about your past and current medical conditions, or we may verify with an employer regarding remuneration information provided in a claim for income protection to ensure that it is accurate.

Disclosure of your information

We disclose relevant information to external organisations that help us provide our services and may also disclose some of your personal information to other parties, when required to do so to provide our products and services to you. The types of people and organisations to which we may disclose information includes, but is not limited to the following:

- Medical practitioners (to verify or clarify, if necessary, any health information you may provide);
- Any person acting on your behalf, including your financial advisor, solicitor, accountant, executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or attorney;
- Reinsurers, other insurers and their administrators;
- The trustee, or administrator of your superannuation fund; and
- Other organisations to whom we outsource certain functions during the assessment process of your application process, such as obtaining blood tests.

There are situations where we may also disclose your personal information in circumstances where it is:

- Required by law (such as to the police or Australian Tax Office), and
- Authorised by law (e.g. under Court Orders or Statutory Notices).
