1.2 Interpretation

In this Trust Deed unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) except where a Schedule expressly provides otherwise, if there is a conflict between a provision of the Trust Deed and a Schedule, the relevant provision of the Trust Deed will prevail;
- (b) a reference to this Trust Deed or any other instrument includes any variation or replacement of them;
- (c) a reference to a statute or other law includes regulations and any other instrument ("subordinate instrument") made under such a statute or law and any consolidation, amendment, re-enactment or replacement of such a statute, law or subordinate instrument;
- (d) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
- (e) terms such as "including", "for example" and similar expressions or words do not imply any limitation;
- (f) a reference to a person:
 - (i) includes a body corporate, any other entity recognised at law, a partnership, joint venture, unincorporated body or association, trust, government or semi governmental agency or body and any other group or organisation of persons; and
 - (ii) includes a person's Legal Personal Representatives, successors and assigns;
- (g) where a word or phrase is given a particular meaning, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or phrase have corresponding meanings;
- (h) headings are inserted for convenience of reference and are not to be taken into account in interpreting this Trust Deed;
- (i) if an event must occur on a stipulated day which is not a Working Day, then the stipulated day will be taken to be the next Working Day;
- (j) a reference to any thing (including any amount) is a reference to the whole or any part of it. A reference to a group of persons is a reference to any one or more of them;
- (k) the fact that words or expressions defined in clause 1.1 commence with capital letters does not of itself imply that a different meaning is intended if those words or expressions are used elsewhere in the Trust Deed and do not commence with capital letters;
- (l) a reference to conduct includes omissions; and
- (m) provisions referring to the rights or obligations of a Beneficiary belonging to a particular Category are intended to apply only in connection with that Category. So, if for example, a person is both an Accumulation Member and a Defined Benefit Member, a provision relating to rights and obligations of Accumulation Members only applies to that Member in relation to his or her membership as an Accumulation Member.

1.3 Paramount Provision

If the Relevant Law prescribes provisions that must be included in the governing rules of a regulated superannuation fund, those provisions are (to the extent they are relevant to the Fund) deemed to appear in this Trust Deed and to override any inconsistent provisions. Any such provisions will no longer be deemed to appear in this Trust Deed if the Relevant Law no longer requires them to be included, or if a Regulator does not require them to be complied with.

1.4 Previous Rights Protected

1.4.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Trust Deed, the Trustee must ensure that any right which a:

- (a) Defined Benefit Member who is a Mine Worker or a Pending Member; or
- (b) Dependant of a Defined Benefit Member who is a Mine Worker or Pending Member; or
- (c) person receiving or entitled to a Statutory Pension, had immediately before the date of effect of this Trust Deed is not removed or restricted by the operation of this Trust Deed. However, nothing in this clause prevents the Trustee from conferring additional rights on a Defined Benefit Member who is a Mine Worker, Pending Member or any such Dependant or person.

1.4.2 To avoid doubt, if the removal of any provision in the Defined Benefit Category of the Trust Deed has the effect of disentitling a Member of a benefit that they would otherwise have been entitled to, the Trustee may, in its absolute discretion, grant that benefit.

The Trustee may establish Investment Options in the Fund for the purpose of accommodating different investment strategies within the Fund, among other things to enable Beneficiaries to exercise investment choice in accordance with clause 14.

2.5 Single Trust

Nothing in this Trust Deed is to be taken as establishing a separate trust in respect of any of the Categories or any Investment Option or any part of the Fund. Where the Trustee is liable to pay amounts in respect of Beneficiaries or Employers, that liability relates to all Assets of the Fund and is not limited to the Assets attributable to any particular Category or Investment Option.

11.3 Powers

The Trustee may accept contributions from any person or in any circumstance permitted by the Relevant Law. Without limiting this clause 11, the Trustee may accept:

- (a) a shortfall component, as defined in the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), in respect of a Member;
- (b) a Contributions-Splitting Superannuation Benefit or Spouse Contributions;
- (c) Government Co-contributions; and
- (d) contributions other than in cash.

11.4 Defective Contributions

11.4.1 If the Trustee finds after accepting contributions that it should not have done so, it may take any action that it considers necessary, or that is permitted by Relevant Law. For example, it may repay an appropriate amount to the person or entity who made the contributions. That amount must be calculated on a fair and reasonable basis and may be adjusted to take into account Fund Expenses to the extent permitted by Relevant Law.

11.4.2 If an amount is initially recorded as having been contributed or transferred to the Fund but that amount is not actually received (for example where a cheque is dishonoured), the contribution or transfer will be deemed to have never been made.

11.5 Late Contributions

Without limiting the powers of the Trustee under clause 11.3, if an Employer fails to pay contributions within the time required under a Schedule, the Employer must, if required by the Trustee, pay the outstanding contributions plus:

- (a) interest on the outstanding contributions from the date payment was due to the date on which the payment was made, at a rate determined by the Trustee based on the actual or estimated rate of investment return on the Fund's assets or those of a relevant Investment Option during the period; and
- (b) reasonable costs incurred by the Trustee in obtaining the outstanding contributions from the Employer.

12 BENEFITS

12.1 Schedules

Particulars regarding the calculation of benefits and the circumstances in which they are payable are stated in the Schedules relevant to each Category.

12.2 Information and Conditions

12.2.1 In relation to the payment of a benefit, the Trustee may:

- (a) require a Beneficiary to provide any information or do any act; and
- (b) impose any conditions;

permitted under the Relevant Law.

12.2.2 If a Beneficiary does not comply with the Trustee's requirements under clause 12.2.1, the Trustee may refuse to consider his or her claim for a benefit or suspend or terminate his or her benefit, if permitted under Relevant Law.

12.2.3 No benefit will be payable unless the Trustee is satisfied that the benefit is properly payable in accordance with the Trust Deed and the Relevant Law.

12.2.4 No Beneficiary or other person claiming on behalf of a Beneficiary or claiming as a Dependant or Legal Personal Representative of a Beneficiary will be entitled to require any payment from the Fund except to the extent that the Deed expressly provides.

12.3 Insurance Arrangements

12.3.1 The Trustee may make arrangements under which insurance cover is made available to Members, or certain Categories or groups of Members, in order to provide for, or supplement, benefits payable from the Fund and enter one or more Insurance Policies for this purpose.

12.3.2 Insurance cover to which this clause applies may relate to death, Total and Permanent Disablement, Temporary Disablement or any other contingency permitted under Relevant Law.

12.3.3 The Trustee may determine any special terms, conditions or restrictions that apply to such insurance cover, or the terms on which it is made available, and may enter any arrangements that it considers appropriate with an insurer for this purpose.

12.4 Insurance Limitations

12.4.1 If arrangements have been made in accordance with clause 12.3.1 under which benefits payable from the Fund may include an insured component under an Insurance Policy (for example a benefit payable on the Member's death or Total and Permanent Disablement or Temporary Disablement):

- (a) the benefit will be such amount or amounts as the Trustee considers appropriate having regard to:
 - (i) the amount or amounts payable under the Insurance Policy;
 - (ii) the timing of those payments;
 - (iii) the liabilities incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Insurance Policy (including the receipt and payment of proceeds); and
 - (iv) any relevant Insurance Policy terms and conditions.
- (b) and no amount is paid or payable under that Insurance Policy in respect of a Member or the amount paid under the Insurance Policy is less than the amount that would ordinarily be payable, the amount payable to the Member will be adjusted accordingly.

12.4.2 If a benefit includes a self-insured component and circumstances exist such that, if that component of the benefit had been insured, in the Trustee's reasonable opinion it is likely that an external insurer:

- (a) would not have provided or increased insurance cover on standard terms;
- (b) would otherwise have refused to provide, maintain or increase cover, or would have terminated or restricted it, or
- (c) would have not admitted or would refused to consider or defer a claim in whole or in part, or pay a benefit in whole or in part, the Trustee may adjust that component of the benefit in accordance with clause 12.4.1 as if the component had been the subject of insurance provided under an Insurance Policy.

12.4.3 Clauses 12.4.2 and 12.4.3 are:

- (a) for the protection of the Trustee and the Fund; and
- (b) not to be taken as conferring any rights on Beneficiaries in respect of benefits additional to those provided under other provisions of this Trust Deed.

12.5 Method

Benefits may be paid by any method that the Trustee considers appropriate.

12.6 Circumstances and Amounts: General

12.6.1 Benefits:

- (a) may, in addition to any specific circumstance described in the Schedules, be paid in any other circumstance permitted by the Relevant Law. (However, the Trustee is not obliged to pay benefits in those other circumstances unless it agrees to do so or the Relevant Law compels it to do so);

- (b) must be paid in the form and in the circumstances in which the Relevant Law compels benefits to be paid;
- (c) may only be paid in the form and in the circumstances in which the Relevant Law permit benefits to be paid;
- (d) will (except where a Member otherwise elects) be paid in lump sum form. A Member may elect for his or her benefit to be paid in pension form or partly as a pension and partly as a lump sum, or in any other manner agreed to by the Trustee. The Trustee may determine the manner and form in which an election must be made and any timing requirements. The Trustee is not obliged to accept an election;
- (e) may, where payable in lump sum form, be paid in more than one instalment;
- (f) may be retained wholly or partly in the Fund with the Trustee's agreement, and if the Relevant Law permits at a Member's request, until paid in accordance with this Trust Deed;
- (g) will generally be paid as soon as practicable. However, subject to the Relevant Law the Trustee may, where it considers appropriate, arrange for payments to be delayed for a reasonable period selected by the Trustee. The Trustee may, in its absolute discretion, adjust a benefit payable by an amount determined by it in respect of the period between the date the benefit first became payable and the actual date of payment of the benefit; and
- (h) will be paid subject to any obligation that the Trustee has to make a payment to a Non-Member Spouse in accordance with the Relevant Law.

12.6.2 Except where this Trust Deed provides otherwise or the Trustee otherwise determines, the amount of a lump sum benefit will be an amount agreed between the Trustee and Beneficiary, but not:

- (a) exceeding the Beneficiary's Account Balance; or
- (b) less than any amount required under the Relevant Law.

12.6.3 Subject to Relevant Law:

- (a) the Trustee may in its absolute discretion pay a benefit or amount greater than would otherwise be provided under this Deed;
- (b) an Employer may request the Trustee to pay a benefit or amount greater than would otherwise be provided under this Deed. In that case the Trustee may require the Employer to contribute additional amounts to the Fund or impose other conditions.

12.7 Death Benefits

This clause applies to Death Benefits for Accumulation Members, Defined Benefit Members, WA Coal Industry Members and Mines Rescue Stations Members and such other membership categories as the Trustee may determine from time to time.

12.7.1 Subject to Relevant Law and the remaining provisions of this Clause 12.7, a Death Benefit must be paid by the Trustee in proportions decided by the Trustee to one or more of:

- (a) the Member's Dependants; and
- (b) the Member's Legal Personal Representatives; in such form, manner and proportions and subject to such conditions as the Trustee in its absolute discretion may determine.

12.7.2 Subject to Relevant Law and clause 12.7.4, if the Trustee, after reasonable inquiry, has not found any Dependant or Legal Personal Representative of the deceased Member, the benefit may be paid to any other person that the Trustee chooses.

12.7.3 For the purposes of this clause 12.7:

- (a) Members may give the Trustee a Death Benefit Nomination;
- (b) except in the case of a Binding Death Nomination, made in accordance with clause 12.7.4, a Death Benefit Nomination is not binding on the Trustee, however the Trustee may consider it when exercising its discretion in payment of a Death Benefit;
- (c) Members may vary Death Benefit Nominations; and
- (d) the Trustee may stipulate a form in which a Death Benefit Nomination is to be made.

12.7.4 Subject to Relevant Law, the Trustee may permit Members to give a Binding Death Benefit Nomination. The Trustee will pay a death benefit in accordance with a Binding Death Benefit Nomination provided that the nomination is valid and in effect, and meets the requirements of the Relevant Law.

12.7.5 The Trustee may establish membership classes and set conditions for each of those classes relating to the manner in which Death Benefits will be payable.

12.7.6 The Trustee may pay part or all of a Death Benefit to be held on trust (contingent or otherwise) for any one or more of the Member's Dependants.

12.7.7 Subject to the Relevant Law, if a Beneficiary, other than a Member dies any amount payable from the Fund in respect of that Beneficiary must be administered and paid as if the Beneficiary was a Member at the time of the Beneficiary's death.

12.8 Transfer of Assets

Where the Trustee is obliged to pay or transfer a benefit, it may meet that obligation wholly or partly by transferring one or more Assets of equivalent value to the Beneficiary.

12.9 Misconduct

Subject to the Relevant Law, if a Beneficiary engages in wrongful conduct as a result of which the Trustee, or the Fund, suffers any loss or damage, the Trustee may deduct any amount that it considers appropriate by way of reimbursement or compensation, from:

- (a) the Beneficiary's interest in the Fund; or
- (b) any benefit that would otherwise be payable in respect of that Beneficiary, under this Trust Deed.

The Trustee may deal with that amount in any manner it considers reasonable having regard to the Relevant Law.

12.10 Bankruptcy and Assignments

12.10.1 If:

- (a) a Beneficiary attempts to assign, alienate or charge all or part of his or her interest under this Trust Deed; or
- (b) any other event occurs, including bankruptcy, that results in a person other than the Beneficiary becoming entitled to that interest (other than an event that produces that result because of a provision of this Trust Deed);

then, subject to the Relevant Law, the interest will be forfeited. This clause 12.10 is to be read down to the extent that it would be inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth).

12.10.2 Subject to the Relevant Law, the amount representing any interest that is forfeited in accordance with this clause 12.10 may be paid in proportions decided by the Trustee for the benefit of one or more of the Beneficiary, or the Beneficiary's (or former Beneficiary's) Dependants as the Trustee considers appropriate.

12.10.3 If a Beneficiary's interest is forfeited under this clause 12.10 and the event or circumstance that gave rise to the forfeiture has ceased to affect the Beneficiary or his or her property, then the Trustee and taking account of any benefit provided under clause 12.10.2 may readjust the interests of the Beneficiary (and of any other person entitled to any claim on those interests) as the Trustee considers appropriate, not exceeding the benefit that would otherwise have applied if the forfeiture had not occurred.

12.10.4 If the Trustee receives an order or notice in respect of a Member under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth), the Trustee may:

- (a) before complying with that order or notice; and
- (b) after complying with that order or notice;

adjust the Member's benefit as the Trustee considers appropriate, including by deducting fees and amounts in respect of Liabilities and Tax. (This is not intended to restrict the Trustee from deducting fees or recovering amounts in any other way.)

12.11 Incapacity

If the Trustee believes that a Beneficiary is unable to manage his or her financial affairs because of legal incapacity, the Trustee may, subject to the Relevant Law, pay some or all of the amount payable in respect of the Beneficiary to another person to be used for the benefit of the Beneficiary.

12.12 Discharge

Once a Beneficiary to whom a payment has been made or an Approved Benefit Arrangement to which a transfer has been made has received the benefit or transfer in full:

- (a) the Trustee is fully discharged from all obligations in connection with that benefit payment or transfer and has no obligation to see how it is applied; and
- (b) the rights and interests of that Beneficiary under the Trust Deed are entirely extinguished.

12.13 Unclaimed Money

The Trustee will ensure that any benefit or money that is unclaimed is dealt with in accordance with the Relevant Law.

12.14 Deductions

The Trustee may deduct fees and amounts in respect of Liabilities and Tax from any benefit payment. (This is not intended to restrict the Trustee from deducting fees or recovering such amounts in any other way.)

- (a) without the Beneficiary's consent if the Relevant Law permits; or
- (b) at the Beneficiary's request. However, if the effect of such a transfer would be to increase an Employer's liability to contribute in respect of the Beneficiary, the transfer may only occur if the Employer consents.

13.2.2 The Trustee may transfer the balance of a Beneficiary's Pension Account to an Approved Benefit Arrangement,

13.2.3 Notwithstanding anything in this clause 13.2, the Trustee may not transfer any benefits without the Beneficiary's consent to the extent that those benefits are composed of:

SCHEDULE C DEFINED BENEFIT CATEGORY RULES

C1 Eligibility

- C1.1 A person is eligible to join the Defined Benefit Category if the Trustee agrees and Relevant Law permits.
- C1.2 A person who had entitlements under Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed immediately prior to the Effective Date has corresponding entitlements under the Defined Benefit Category as at the Effective Date. To avoid doubt a reference to entitlements under Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed is to be interpreted taking into account any provisions of the Previous Trust Deed that did not appear in Part 3 but which nonetheless affected the entitlements of persons with entitlements under that Part.

C2 Definitions and Interpretation

- C2.1 For the purposes of Schedule C:

"Amending Deed" means the deed amending the trust deed of the Fund with effect from the Effective Date.

"Owners" has the same meaning as that term is defined under Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed.

- C2.2 Rules 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 of Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed shall apply to Schedule C as if they had not been replaced (along with other provisions) by the Amending Deed.

C3 Application of the Previous Trust Deed

- C3.1 The Trustee:

- (a) will establish and maintain Accounts;
- (b) will pay any pension or lump sum benefit to or in respect of a Member or former Member to whom Schedule C applies; and
- (c) will perform all duties and may otherwise exercise any power or discretion, as provided under, or in accordance with, the provisions of Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed as if those provisions (along with other provisions) had not been replaced by the Amending Deed.

- C3.2 The rights, obligations and entitlements of Members and Owners for the purposes of Schedule C shall be determined in accordance with Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed as if that Part (along with other provisions) had not been replaced by the Amending Deed.
- C3.3 Without limiting the application of clauses 1.3 and 1.4 of the Trust Deed, any provision in Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed which was deemed to apply to, or appear in, the trust deed of the Fund in order to comply with the NSW Act as at the Effective Date, shall be deemed to apply to, or appear in Schedule C, from the Effective Date, notwithstanding any changes made by the Amending Deed. (To avoid doubt any such provisions may be amended after the Effective Date in the same way that they were able to be amended under the terms of the Previous Trust Deed immediately prior to the Effective Date).

C3.4 To avoid doubt a reference in this Rule C3 to provisions in Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed is to be taken as including provisions that appeared in other parts of the Previous Trust Deed but which nonetheless affected the entitlements of persons with entitlements under that Part.

Deed 9

C3.5 For the purposes of this Schedule C, rule 3.14.7(c) of the Previous Trust Deed is taken to have been amended by deleting the provision as it stood as at the Effective Date and replacing it with the following:

"(c) The spouse of any Mine Worker eligible for or in respect of a pension under this Part of the Fund who has been deserted by the Mine Worker or has been left by the Mine Worker without means of support and who satisfies the Trustee:

(i) that the spouse has taken proceedings against the Mine Worker for an order for the provision of maintenance under the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth and either that the spouse has failed to obtain an order or that the order, if made, has not been complied with; and

In this subrule 3.14.7(c), spouse, in relation to a Mine Worker, includes any person with whom the Mine Worker is living as the Mine Worker's spouse on a bona fide domestic basis."

C3.6 For the purpose of this Schedule C, Part 3 of the Previous Trust Deed is taken to have been amended by deleting the words "in the Gazette", wherever that phrase refers to publication of a Trustee determination, and replacing those words with the following:
